MARQUIS BANK NAMES MERCEDES ACUÑA ASSISTANT VICE PRESIDENT

North Miami Beach, Fla. – Robert Muñoz, President and CEO of North Miami Beach-based Marquis Bank, has named Mercedes Acuña Assistant Vice President. Acuña, a Miami banking veteran, brings seven years of experience to the de novo institution.

Acuña began her banking career at Banco del Comercio where she was responsible for maintaining a high net worth portfolio. She served as a personal banker and was responsible for growing deposits and relationship activity. In 2003, she moved to Israel Discount Bank and served as a domestic Private Banker. In 2006, she joined Regions Bank, and was responsible for the development of cross-selling to existing loan customers. In 2007, Acuña joined Unum and increased sales by identifying sales opportunities among existing policyholders

Acuña obtained a dual B.A. in International Business and Management in 2003 from Florida International University. She continued on to get her MBA from Nova Southeastern University in 2009. Acuña is licensed in Life Insurance and Fixed Annuities series 2-14. She is also on the committee for the Centro Biblico International (CBI).
